GSO202 – COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT I
JOE LIEWAY - INSTRUCTOR
Three Semester Hours Credit

Fall 2014

Wednesdays and Fridays
12:00 – 1:15 P.M.

MISSION STATEMENT

Saint Louis Christian College pursues excellence in the Word and develops servant leaders for urban, suburban, rural, and global ministry.

COLLEGE CORE VALUES

The Faculty, Staff, and Administration of Saint Louis Christian College embrace and promote the following values in the design and delivery of our programs:

Bible Knowledge— Saint Louis Christian College is a Bible college, where every baccalaureate graduate pursues a major in Biblical and theological studies. The Bible's message informs our understanding of the purpose and predicament of human life, the history of the world, the nature and mission of the Church, and the nature and goal of ministry

Christian Character— Saint Louis Christian College believes that servants of Christ must live by the example and teaching of Christ. We believe that the classical virtues of Wisdom, Courage, Self-control, Justice, Faith, Hope, and Love are exemplified by the life of Christ. He, in perfect humility, taught us first to love God and then to love our neighbors as ourselves.

Ministry Skills— Because our graduates are called to be servant-leaders in their chosen fields of ministry, they possess the skills to relate to people of many backgrounds, the heart to serve them in their brokenness, and the judgment to effectively apply the Scriptures to life's diverse situations. Students are challenged and helped to identify and develop their spiritual gifts and are placed in settings to practice those gifts skillfully.

Christian Worldview— A broad base of academic knowledge is fundamental to becoming an educated person who effectively reasons and interacts in society. At the center of a Christian view of life and the world is the proposition that humans and the universe in which they live were created by the God who has revealed Himself in the Scriptures. God is the source of all truth, not just religious truth; and the Bible provides the basis for the ordering of all knowledge. The curriculum at Saint Louis Christian College integrates thought and life across a broad academic range and fosters in students a lifelong appreciation for the independent value of knowing.

Christian Community— Saint Louis Christian College is a diverse community of believers united by Christ in mission and purpose. The intimacy of our campus provides a unique atmosphere for developing lifelong relationships. However, our community extends beyond the boundaries of our campus and into the city in which we live, the church that we serve and the world we want to reach.

COURSE DESCRIPTION

Students develop skills in mobilizing spiritual and physical resources for the development of communities through the agency of local congregations and para-church organizations. Principles and case studies of community development are examined and evaluated. 3 Credits.

COURSE RATIONALE

This course contributes to the achievement of the following institutional objectives. Upon completion of a program of study at Saint Louis Christian College the student will:

Practice servant-leadership on the model of Jesus, addressing the practical issues of racism, poverty, political powerlessness, and spiritual need among the world's disenfranchised, both urban and rural.

Therefore SLCC promotes leadership models that focus on physical, emotional, and spiritual human needs in the wider community and around the world, as well as in students' local churches.

BIBLE AND INTERCULTURAL & URBAN MISSIONS OBJECTIVES:

This course also contributes to student achievement of the following Bible and Intercultural & Urban Missions objectives:

1. Given the opportunity to research a selected field of work, the student will demonstrate the ability to independently gather the appropriate information for starting a mission by submitting in a research paper a detailed analysis of that field.
2. Through both classroom and field experience, the student will understand various approaches for church development and holistic ministry in a particular setting by constructing a portfolio detailing effective methods of ministry establishment, growth, and closure.
3. Upon the completion of a successful internship, the student will experience a missionary's life and work in its critical dimensions by raising support to travel to a field of service and by participating in a practical hands-on intercultural or urban ministry.
4. Through participating in both a cross-cultural internship and class activities, the student will demonstrate skills to communicate with people interculturally by successfully completing the required internship and developing a cultural profile that includes a strategy for evangelizing that people group.

COURSE GOAL

As a result of this study, the student will demonstrate knowledge, attitudes, and skills which will enable him or her to minister in a comprehensive manner to poor communities and the individuals in them.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

As a result of this study, the student will:

1. Appreciate the holistic nature of ministry concern in the lives of individuals and communities.
2. Relate biblical and historical precedents to the modern movement in community development.
3. Enunciate the principles of Christian community development.
4. Demonstrate an understanding of the nature of human culture and its impact on individual and community life.
5. Appreciate the diversity of culture in the modern world.
6. Recognize his or her ethnocentrism and cultural insensitivity.
7. Show competence in analysis and assessment of community culture and needs.
8. Demonstrate ability to network communities for the purpose of development.
9. Outline the essentials of a leadership development program for at-risk communities.
10. Identify resources for further study in community development.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Attendance and Participation - Attendance in class is required. Attendance will be graded according to the following formula and factored into the student's final average.

Absences Grade

0	One point added to final average
1	No points added or deducted
2	One point deducted from final average
3	Two points deducted from final average

Tardies will be noted. Three tardies will be equivalent to an absence. Students with absences over 3 will be in violation of the College's "25% rule" and accordingly will be given a grade of F for the course.

Reading - The textbooks for the course are:

The Bible

Perkins, John M. With Justice For All: A Strategy for Community Development. Ventura: Regal Books, 1982.

Lupton, Robert D. Compassion, Justice and the Christian Life: Rethinking Ministry to the Poor. Ventura, CA: Regal Books, 2007.

The student will be required to read the texts as set forth in the attached course schedule. To give evidence that this has been completed the student will be required to answer and submit the course reading questions on the assigned dates. The student should also be prepared to answer questions from the assigned reading on the major course examination. The reading assignment will factor in as 10% of course total grade.

Current Community Challenges Report - Students will be divided into ministry teams to work together on a “Current Community Challenges Report.” Teams will identify a current challenge facing at-risk communities and will research that issue in light of the commitments of Christian community development. Each member of the team will write a five-page essay on the issue which the team identifies. This essay should summarize the current state of the challenge in at-risk communities. The essay should give evidence of significant research in at least five resources. This paper must be done according to the rules for style set forth in the MLA Handbook for Writers of Research Papers. Team members will share their reports with one another and will develop a group report which will be presented in class on September 12. Reports will be graded according to the scoring guide contained in this syllabus. This assignment will factor in as 20% of course total grade.

Issues which are appropriate subjects for study are issues such as:

Access to health insurance and adequate health care	The affordability of housing in poor communities
Why do kids join gangs?	Recreational programs and youth in poor communities
Elder care in poor communities	Public education: bright flight and high dropout rates
Homelessness	Unemployment and underemployment
White-flight	Illegal drugs
Violent crime	Welfare: Its Positives and Negatives
Family dysfunction	Cultural diversity and distress

Christian Community Development Ministry Synopsis - Teams will identify a community development ministry, gather information about that work, and will present a creative summary of the work to the class. Each member of the team will write a five-page essay on the ministry which the team studies. This paper must be done according to the rules for style set forth in the MLA Handbook for Writers of Research Papers, which will factor in as 10% of course total grade. Team members will share their reports with one another and will develop a group report which will be presented in class on October 15. Potential areas for discussion include:

- Reason ministry started
- History of development of ministry
- Information regarding ministry staff
- Background information of the community served
- Types of ministries offered Mission/vision of the ministry
- Testimony of a “success story”
- Anything else that might come to mind or present itself during research

Community Needs Study - Student teams will work together to conduct a “Community Needs Survey” that will further the ministry of a St. Louis church (current or future). The process will involve:

- Gathering of demographic information for a particular neighborhood;
- Conducting survey to assess felt needs in community;
- Networking with the larger community to determine current resources;

Student will be expected to spend at least ten hours in their community while developing their study. Each member of the team will write a five-page essay on the felt needs of the community which the team studies. This paper must be done according to the rules for style set forth in the MLA Handbook for Writers of Research Papers. Team members will share their reports with one another and will develop a group report which will be presented in class on October 31. This assignment will also factor in as 25% of course total grade.

Examinations - Students will be required to take two major examinations: Mid-term on Oct. 10, on course materials, which will factor in as 15% and final exam on December 5 on course materials, which will factor in as 20% of course total grade.

COURSE INFORMATION

Late Policy - Papers are due during the class period on the day the paper is due. Reading assignments will have ten points deducted from the total score for each class day they are late.

Missed Examinations – Students may make up examinations for which they were absent from class for a legitimate reason. Make-up tests will be administered in the Library during the hours that full-time Library staff are on duty. Make-up exams must be taken within one week of the test date. Exams which are missed for reasons other than sickness or unavoidable circumstances will not be allowed a make-up. The final examination must be completed before the conclusion of the final exam week.

Legibility - All homework assignments must be legible (typed, neatly written, or printed). Your grade will be dropped if your paper is sloppy and not readable.

Academic Honesty - Any cheating or plagiarism will result in a grade of "F" or ZERO being given for the assignment on which it is found.

Special Academic Circumstances - Students with a diagnosed learning disability, please see the instructor privately to discuss assessment measures that would enhance your ability to learn.

Adjustment of Syllabus - The above schedule, procedures, and assignments are subject to change in the event of extenuating circumstances.
