She has taught in private school, public school, and in the church. She has also served as principal/administrator at a Christian elementary school.

Lisa is a certified coach for the Grip/Birkman gift and personality assessment and utilizes this tool to help individuals and churches mobilize people according to their spiritual gifts and develop teams which effectively minister together.

Lisa enjoys ministering to and serving the body of Christ and has done so in a variety of ways, always approaching these ministries in a manner which reflects her passion to equip others to serve.

- She's directed and designed curriculum for VBS, led youth ministry, and directed choirs and dramas.
- She's served as Christian education chair.
- Lisa's monthly newsletter ("The Encouragers Devotional Series") has been utilized by individuals and churches to develop ministries of encouragement.
- She's been involved in worship leading for over 25 years, and has served as song evangelist at revivals and other special events.
- She has spoken and led workshops at many church events, conferences and at the Missouri Christian Convention.

Lisa is passionate about the study and sharing of Scripture. Motivated by Hebrews 4:12 and 2 Timothy 3:16-17, her desire is that the living, powerful, and inspired Word of God would help each of us to "be complete and thoroughly equipped for every good work" in Christ Jesus.
