Course Descriptions

Course Numbering System

Courses are numbered in a manner that indicates the area of study and academic level. Each course has a three-letter prefix indicating the division and department in which the course is located, and a three-number suffix identifying the academic level.

Prefix— The first letter of the prefix indicates the division of study: B—Biblical Education, G—General Education, P—Professional Education. The following two letters identify the department of study within the division:

Biblical Education Division	General Education Division	Professional	Education
		Division
BI—Bible	EN—English	ED—Educ	ation
NT—New Testament	LA—Language	MN—Ministry
OT—Old Testament	AR—Arts	FE—Field Education
TH—Theology	HY—History	MI—Missions
	MA—Math	WM—Wo	rship & Music
	PH—Philosophy	SP—Preac	hing
	PY—Psychology	CO-Behav	rioral
	SC—Science
	SO—Sociology
	SP—Speech

Suffix— The first number of the suffix indicates the class level of the course: 000-level course: College Prep. A course designed to develop college-level skills, for which credit does not apply to graduation requirements nor does it affect the student's GPA. 100-level course: Freshman. A basic or introductory course that provides a foundation for more advanced studies, ordinarily taken in the freshman year. 200-level course: Sophomore. A survey or overview of a subject area, ordinarily taken in the sophomore year. 300-level course: Junior. A more in-depth or advanced inquiry into a subject area, ordinarily taken in the Junior year. 400-level course: Senior. A terminal study with a specific focus, ordinarily taken in the senior year. Students may not take a course more than one level above their class standing without the permission of the Academic Dean. The second number indicates the sequence of the course in relation to the other courses within that department. The final number in the suffix usually indicates the semester the course is offered: 1—Fall Semester, 2—Spring Semester, 0—Either or both semesters. For example, BNT101 indicates the course is in the Biblical Division (B), the New Testament Department of study (NT), the freshman level (1), the first course in the New Testament Department sequence (0), and that New Testament Survey is offered in the Fall Semester (1).

Source codes— The letter C following a course number indicates that the course is available from the Consortium of Christian Colleges (CCC). (Example: GHY202C-Restoration History) The SLCC tuition scholarship does not apply to these courses. The letter K following a course number indicates that the course is available from the Consortium of Online Christian Colleges (COCC). (Example: GSC200K-Earth Science) The SLCC tuition scholarship does not apply to these courses. The letter n following a course number indicates that it is an AIM course. (Day-program students may take up to 6 hours of AIM courses as part of their program.)

Course Sequencing System

Courses are sequenced in a manner that indicates the course's scheduled offering in the course rotation. Following each course description there is an italicized line identifying the total number of credit hours for the course and a sequencing code containing several letters. The first two letters of the code refer to Every Year (ey), Every Odd-Numbered Year (eo-2009, 2011, etc.), or Every Even-Numbered Year (ee-2008, 2010). The next letter identifies the semester in which the course is offered: Fall Semester (f), Spring Semester (s), or both Fall and Spring Semester (fs). For example, eyf identifies the course as being offered every year (ey) during the Fall Semester (f); and, eos identifies the course as being offered every odd-numbered year in the Spring Semester.

Note: Biblical and theological elective courses are identified as such and sequenced throughout the degree programs according to the following schedule: Old Testament Prophets electives—eys; Old Testament Wisdom electives—eyf; Pauline Epistles electives—eys; Non-Pauline electives—eyf; Gospels electives—eys; and, Theology electives—eyfs. All courses designated as a particular kind of elective are not offered at the same time. Rather, the elective slot is scheduled according to the sequence code. For example, the Old Testament Wisdom elective slot is scheduled every year in the Fall Semester. However, only one of the three courses (Psalms, Job, Proverbs and Wisdom Literature) is offered each year in the Fall Semester.

Division of Biblical Education

Harold E. Merritt, M.Div., Chair

Purpose

The Division of Biblical Education enables the student to know the content of the Bible well and interpret it skillfully. Saint Louis Christian College affirms the inspiration and inerrancy of the Bible as God's word and recognizes the impact of the Scripture on all of life. As such, the courses in the Division of Biblical Education are central to the curriculum of the College. Knowledge of the truths of Scripture and the ability to interpret the teaching of the Bible are important leadership skills that constitute the heart of the educational process at Saint Louis Christian College. Accordingly, every bachelor-degree program has a Bible major.

Objectives

- Given instruction in the Bible and in biblical theology, the student will exhibit knowledge of the messages of the various Old and New Testament books and the saving message of the Bible as a whole.
- 2. Shown how to use tools and sound methods for interpreting the Bible, the student will demonstrate the ability to properly interpret, apply, and communicate Scripture.
- 3. Presented with the Biblical message, mandate, and models, the student will know how to witness effectively within various cultural contexts leading to the worship of God.

Special Notes:

- Old Testament Survey, BOT101, is a prerequisite for all 300- and 400-level Old Testament courses.
- New Testament Survey BNT 101, and Life of Christ, BNT102, are prerequisites for all 300- and 400level New Testament courses.
- Hermeneutics, BBI211, is a prerequisite for all 300- and 400-level Bible and Theology courses.

Bible

BBI101n-Introduction to the Bible

This course is an introductory study of the Bible. The sixty-six books of the Bible will be set in chronological order and correlated with the corresponding periods of biblical history. Included in the study will be a brief analysis of each book, noting the theme, historical development, personalities, main events, and progression of the redemptive system.

3 Creditsaim

BBI211, 215N-Hermeneutics

Students acquire basic skills for interpreting the Bible appropriate to its varied literary contexts. Confidence for future Bible study is obtained by completion of a step-by-step exegesis of a portion of Scripture.

3 Creditseyf

Prerequisite: GEN120

BBI312c-Bible Lands and Lifeways

This course presents a multimedia exploration of the geography and cultures of the Bible, and incorporates on-site videos, interactive maps, and a variety of learning tools to help students learn their way around the Holy Land.

Old Testament

BOT101, 105N-Old Testament Survey

Students begin their path toward a comprehensive knowledge of the Old Testament by exploring each Old Testament book individually, highlighting the key passages and theology, as well as placing each book in its historical and cultural context. Understanding of issues involving the formation and authority of the Old Testament canon will also be attained.

3 Creditseyf

BOT102, 115N-History of Israel I

The background and beginning of the Hebrew nation and its history to the entrance into Canaan are studied as recorded in the first five books of the Old Testament.

3 Credits evs

BOT201, 205N-History of Israel II

Students continue their study of the history of Israel from the entrance into Canaan to the return from Babylonian captivity. Attention is then given to the times of Esther, Ezra, and Nehemiah as God fulfills His promise to preserve a remnant of His people through whom He would send the Christ.

3 Creditseyf

BOT210N-Old Testament History

Students survey the history of Israel from its background and beginnings to the restoration from Babylonian captivity.

3 Creditsaim

BOT251N–Old Testament Prophets

Students study the prophetic books (Isaiah-Malachi) including a chronology of the prophets. Special attention is given to the religious, social, and political message of the prophets.

3 Creditsaim

BOT301-Psalms

Students read the Psalms and examine the background, composition, and literary context of the book as a whole. Analysis and exposition of selected Psalms are considered.

Purpose

The Division of General Education provides a broad perspective to the student's education, enabling him or her to integrate knowledge and apply the Christian perspective to concrete life situations. In order for graduates to minister effectively in today's fast-paced and changing world, the General Education Division has adopted the philosophy that each student must have a broad knowledge base in accepted basic disciplines. This core includes an understanding of basic principles of mathematics, life science, oral and written communication, behavioral sciences, and the humanities. The General Education program provides essential information and skills that will be used throughout the student's academic and professional career. The provision and integration of these components are intended to produce responsible citizens with lifelong learning and wellness habits who are able to critically examine, organize, and communicate their beliefs.

Objectives

- 1. Given instruction in the communication skills, the student will demonstrate the ability to communicate effectively and will be able to use a variety of research and documentation techniques.
- 2. Upon completion of the study of humanities, the student will be able to analyze major components of culture and will be able to understand the differences between Christianity and other worldviews.
- 3. With the completion of college-level mathematics and science courses, the student will demonstrate an understanding of mathematical and scientific concepts from a Christian perspective.
- 4. Given instruction in the social and behavioral sciences, the student will be able to identify and evaluate the interrelationships among individuals and organizations.

Division of Professional Education

Michael Pabarcus, Ph.D., Chair

Purpose

The Division of Professional Education equips men and women for effective leadership ministry to serve God in the world. Effective service in the church and society is the ultimate objective of the educational process at Saint Louis Christian College. The Professional Education Division curriculum enables the student to synthesize insights from the Biblical and General Education divisions into a practical philosophy of ministry and to develop meaningful career skills.

Objectives

- 1. Given opportunities to participate in classroom projects and ministry experiences, the student will exhibit the ability to communicate the biblical message clearly and contextually.
- 2. Upon completion of studies in evangelism and teaching, the student will be able to utilize diverse methodologies in order to lead a person to a saving relationship with Christ.
- 3. Through opportunities to participate in classroom, ministry and leadership experiences, the student will develop the ability to integrate Christians into an active involvement in a local church fellowship.
- 4. Having been exposed to effective church models and administrative procedures via classroom and field experiences, the student will possess essential knowledge to organize and administrate a ministry within the basis of a biblical, historical, and socio-cultural context.
- 5. By means of the integration of classroom instruction, observation, and participatory leadership/ministry opportunities, the student will cultivate a growing appreciation for and understanding of the biblical model of servant leadership.

Behavioral (Pre-Counseling)

PCO201 - Introduction to Counseling

Students are introduced to principles of counseling from a holistic perspective, including examination of several counseling theories. As students study this field, they will understand the fundamental skills, tools and techniques used to assess and lead others towards healing
